

PROJECT REVIEW

We offer experienced guidance to help you achieve a harmonious interior by carefully blending practicality and style.

The most inviting homes are those where the owner's true personality is revealed.

Headed by veteran decorator and antique dealer Adam Bray, Project Review is an innovative advice and support service for clients who are working through their own interior design schemes and require some expert help to realise their vision. It provides an opportunity for clients to share their projects in a relaxed atmosphere and gain some professional insight and advice at any stage of the interior transformation.

- Visit our studio at any stage of your project and we will give you the support you need to overcome any hurdles, practical or creative.
- We review your electrical plans and hardware schedules.
- We review your architectural drawings and can commission any renderings.
 - We will help you budget your project to prevent the stress of runaway costs.
 - We review layout options for kitchens and bathrooms and advise on the important practical issues.
 - We look at your proposed colour schemes and share our experience and large paint colour library.
 - We advise on curtain styles and upholstery options.
- We recommend tried and tested artisans and craftsmen who can help you realise your vision.
- We will share access to our archive and offer guidance when working through a large selection of furnishing fabrics drawn from some of the most interesting collections available.
- We help you search for antique and vintage furnishings and advise on styles, values and suitability.
